NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Giants squared off with the Homer Yankees Friday night in Homer. Cam Albright pitched a solid game striking out 10 batters. The Giants were able to take the lead in the 3rd inning by good at bats from Wilson, Sears, Torbit, and Albright. Ethan Torbit was able to record his first hit of the season which started the solid 3rd inning for the Giants. The Yankees were able to take the lead with a couple of pass balls which scored 2 runs. Miles Franko came in at the top of the 5th and did a fantastic job with his control on the mound. The Giants were able to get some runners on in the top of the 6th with a lead off double from Emmy Wilson. Wilson would eventually score with a RBI single from Cam Albright. The Giants would leave runners stranded on second and third to end the game. Overall, a well played game by both teams.
