NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Phillies and Giants battled in a baseball thriller on Monday night. The Phillies came out in the top of the 1st inning and put up 6 runs, while bringing 11 batters to the plate. They were also able to chase Giants starting pitcher, Jameson Craig, from the game before the 1st inning ended. From there, the Giants used the rest of the game to claw back and make it a close ball game in the 6th inning. Leading that charge from the leadoff spot for the Giants was hard-hitting Kooper Sears. Sears put 3 hard hits into the outfield and the Phillies pitching and defense had no answer to his offensive prowess. Thankfully for the Phillies, they were able to keep the Giants from the bigger offensive innings. Dawson Coy came in to pitch for the Giants after Craig, and he was able to cool the Phillies bats. The Phillies only plated 3 more runs in the remaining 4 innings. After Aaron Forehand's gutty pitching performance for the Phillies in 4 1/3 innings, the Phillies managed to piece together some good pitching performances out of the bullpen. Even though the Giants scored 5 runs in the last 2 innings, Eli Hilsinger and Gavin Brown held down the fort, and Riley Burns ended the game by shutting the door in a 5-pitch, 2 strikeout gem.

The Giants pull even on the season at 3-3, and the Phillies improve to 2-4.
