NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

After 5-innings of play the Diamondbacks and Cubs were knotted up at 3 apiece in a well-played game by both teams. The Cubs were able to strike in the top half of the 6th landing 3-more runs, while holding the D-Backs scoreless in the bottom half for the win.

The D-Backs pitching combo of Jordan Brown and Quinten VanDee held the Cubs scoreless on 1-hit through 3-innings while combining for 7 Ks. Jordan Brown ended the 6th inning surge for the Cub by catching a hard liner at shortstop and turning a double play by catching the runner at second a bit too far off the bag. The Diamondbacks were led offensively by Kielin Irvine (2x3), Quinten VanDee (2x3), Tyler Schlutze (2x3), Aiden Davis (1x1 w/ a BB), Aubrey Towle (2x2), and Bryce Rorick (2x2).

The Cubs pitching duo of Mark Ecker and Dominick Brown were equally impressive holding their opponents scoreless over 3-innings while only giving up 3-hits and striking out six. The Cubs bats were led by James Greene (2x3 w/ 2 runs), Cole Milligan (2x3), Owen Coon (2x3), Mark Ecker (2x3), Josiah Craig (1x1 w/ a BB), and monster hits by both Marcus Conklin and Cylan Southwick to lead the charge in final inning, each scoring the go ahead runs.
