NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Astros took an early 4-0 lead, but in the second inning relief pitcher Tyler Thomas stopped the Astros momentum. In the 4th inning, the Padres rallied tied the game when Barrett Trabucco hit an RBI single and Logan Toomey notched a huge game tying 2 RBI single. In the bottom of the 4th The Astros took back the lead when Hunter Lines singled and later stole home.

Down 5-4 in the top of the 5th the Padres again tied the game when Nathaniel Poole singled and stole second. An errant went into the outfield and allowed Poole to score the tying run. The Padres took a 6th lead when Nathan Harrington singled to start the inning and scored on an error by the first baseman that would have ended the inning. With the Astros down by one, the bottom of the 6th started with a spectacular catch by the Padres center fielder Matteus Constantino. With two outs and tying run on third, the Astros Hunter Lines hit the ball well to the shortstop and barely beat out the throw to first to tie the game. Into extra innings the game went and with two outs Tyler Thomas singled. The next batter Karter Bush singled him home for what would be the game winning run. In the bottom of the 7th, Thomas closed out his exceptional day on the mound by striking out 2 batter and getting the 3rd out with a groundout to end the game.

Padres (pitching): Tyler Thomas 2 runs allowed over 5 innings, with 9 Ks and no walks
