NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Major Division Reds and Phillies met in a rain delayed postponed dual on Key Bank Field at Ted Testa Park. The team's pitcher's (6 total) combined for 12 strikeouts and a few spectacular defensive plays from both teams. Notably the Reds shortstop (Oliver Parker) turned a beautiful 6U-3 double play in to end the top half of the 2nd inning. The offense for the Phillies was spread amongst multiple players and charged forward in the 6th inning. The Phillies scored 6 runs in the last inning. The performance of the day was displayed by the starting pitchers Aaron Forehand and Andrew Barber. The game was scoreless in the first 4 innings and both pitchers were masterful when runners got on base.

The Reds offense was led by Xanden Preston and Miles Bacigalupi whom went 2-3 with a couple of runs scored and a few RBI. The Reds offense came to life plating 13 runs in the 5th inning which was started by back-to-back doubles from Logan Seamon and Finn Quinlan.

Reds Offensive Leaders:

Xanden Preston 2-3 with 1 Run Scored

Miles Bacigalupi 2-3 with 1 Run Scored and 2 RBI

Lennox Eastman 2-2 with a double and run scored and walk

Phillies Offensive Leaders:

Gavin Brown 1-2 with a run scored and 2 RBI
